Annotation: The idea of creating a morally, spiritually perfect, ideologically mature society composed of citizens, connected with the dignity, honor, and happy, blissful life of every citizen, based on the reforms being carried out in our country in order to build a new Uzbek social state, is a phenomenon of its statehood, which is being synthesized with politics. After all, if our state is the only savior of our society, then the only and only source that further improves it with will, motivation, and a sense of initiative is spirituality. If we consider the body of social life as the economy, then its soul and spirit are spirituality, as reflected in the article.

In the development strategy of the new Uzbekistan, spiritual and cultural reforms will serve as a solid foundation for our promising country to achieve the Third Renaissance. In this regard, our head of state Shavkat Mirziyoyev, while making a separate stop, will dwell on the following: “Strengthening the spiritual foundations of our society, developing the cultural sphere, supporting and encouraging the activities of scientific and creative organizations and our respected intellectuals will also be one of the priority areas for us”. In this regard, our head of state Shavkat Mirziyoyev, while making a separate stop, will dwell on the following: “Strengthening the spiritual foundations of our society, developing the cultural sphere, supporting and encouraging the activities of scientific and creative organizations and our respected intellectuals will also be one of the priority areas for us”. [1] It would not be an exaggeration to say that under the leadership of our President Shavkat Mirziyoyev, the goal of achieving the consent of the people, of all people living in our country from the age of seven to seventy, lies at the heart of the large-scale renewal and creative work and reforms being implemented. These reforms, which are being implemented with determination, are highly recognized not only in the Central Asian region, but also throughout the world. Building a new Uzbekistan, laying the foundation of the Third Renaissance, is becoming the basis of the determination and life goals of each of our compatriots.

To this end, the spiritual and cultural reforms being carried out in our country today set the following issues as urgent tasks:

Firstly, to bring reforms in the spiritual and cultural sphere to a new level, to satisfy the spiritual and cultural needs of citizens, to organize their leisure time in a meaningful way, to form exemplary programs that embody the customs, traditions, and national values of creative groups;

Secondly, to preserve and develop folk creativity and amateur art through the organization of artistic and practical creative collectives and amateur groups, to create favorable conditions for their activities, and to systematically enrich the creative process step by step;

Thirdly, in today's rapidly changing times, the demand for learning foreign languages is higher than ever. To this end, it is necessary to involve children in foreign language study circles, organize courses on "speech culture", widely disseminate all genres and directions of folk creativity, amateur art and intangible cultural heritage, and present them in their original form. passing on to the next generation;

Fourthly, to organize spiritual, educational, cultural and public events, in cooperation with artists, literary figures and professional creative groups, and to hold direct artistic meetings and roundtable discussions with the population, especially young people;

Fifth, to identify talented young people, support and encourage creative young people, and hold competitions, festivals of folk art and performing arts at the district (city) level;

Sixth, organizing public events, public holidays, and performances, and providing paid services to individuals and legal entities in the socio-cultural sphere under contracts concluded with them.

Our President Shavkat Mirziyoyev will sign the Decree “ On the Development Strategy of New Uzbekistan for 2022-2026”on January 28, 2022.

Regarding the adoption of this decree, our President Shavkat Mirziyoyev specifically noted the following: “In the development strategy of the new Uzbekistan, along with social, economic and political factors, the reforms being implemented in the spiritual and educational spheres are also of great importance.”[2]

Accordingly, the fifth priority area of the Development Strategy of New Uzbekistan for 2022-2026 is devoted to the issue of “Ensuring Spiritual Development and Bringing the Sector to a New Level”, embodying the prospect of spiritual and cultural reforms in the development strategy of New Uzbekistan.[3]

The large-scale reforms being implemented in our country are intended to lay a solid foundation for the third Renaissance - a new Renaissance. The Strategy for the Development of New Uzbekistan outlines specific measures to radically improve the system of spiritual and educational work, further strengthen cooperation between state and public organizations in this regard, strengthen the coordinating role of the Republican Center for Spirituality and Education, widely introduce a scientific approach in the field, and support and encourage progressive initiatives. In particular, in Goal 71 of the New Uzbekistan Development Strategy, the issue of transforming a healthy worldview and creativity into a nationwide movement in society through the widespread dissemination of the idea of “Strategy of Actions - Development Strategy Yellow”, based on the principles of humanity and goodness, was identified, and the following priority tasks were identified:

- ✓ “Implementation of the concept "New Uzbekistan - an enlightened society”.

Organization of legal and educational events to form a legal culture among the population in harmony with the rich history, scientific and cultural heritage of our people, and the teaching of national and religious values.

- ✓ Develop creative, effective, and innovative methods of organizing propaganda and taking measures to implement them in a timely manner.

✓ State support and encouragement for the preservation, wide popularization, and development of the rich national values and spiritual heritage of the Uzbek people. Oila, ta’lim tashkilotlari va mahallalarda ma’naviy tarbiyaning uzviyligini ta’minlash.

- ✓ Prevent the spread of false information by providing timely and objective information in the media and social networks.

✓ Form a map of optimizing the socio-spiritual environment across regions based on the principle of “neighborhood - district - region - republic”, and widely introduce modern information and communication technologies into this process.

- ✓ Develop scientifically based indicators for assessing spiritual education.

✓ Use interactive methods of education to transform schools into true centers of spirituality, enlightenment, and culture.

- ✓ To form the skills of fighting ideological attacks together on the basis of the national idea, strengthening cooperation between family, school and neighborhood, and on this basis ensuring the continuity of spiritual education.

Ensuring the realization of the idea of “New Uzbekistan – Third Renaissance” under the slogan “Youth – Creators of New Uzbekistan”.

In addition, Goal 72 of the Development Strategy sets out to further develop the provision of information and library services to the population of our country, to widely popularize librarianship, and to implement the national idea of a "Book-loving nation", to widely popularize librarianship, and to introduce a unified management system in the sector.[4]

- ✓ Another distinctive feature of the development strategy is the special attention it pays to the issue of in-depth study and wide dissemination of the rich scientific heritage of our great ancestors and thinkers. In particular, these tasks are set out in goal 73 of the development strategy as follows:

✓ “Organization of international conferences, symposiums and forums under the slogan "New Uzbekistan - Third Renaissance" in cooperation with prestigious international organizations of the world, such as OIC, IRCICA, ICESCO, UNESCO, research centers and universities. To carry out a popular translation of 100 works by the great scholars and great ancestors who have emerged from our country, and to create scientific and popular treatises based on them, in order to widely disseminate the rich scientific and spiritual heritage of our ancestors.

support and encourage the activities of the International Islamic Academy of Uzbekistan, the Center for Islamic Civilization, the Imam Bukhari, Imam Termizi, and Imam Moturidi International Scientific and Research Centers in order to deeply study and widely disseminate the rich scientific heritage of our great ancestors.[4]

The atmosphere of friendship and mutual understanding in the new Uzbekistan will ensure peace and stability in our country, increase the effectiveness of strategic reforms, and further enhance its prestige in the international arena. The results of these reforms are fully reflected in the reforms being carried out by our leader today[5]. In particular, Goal 74 of the development strategy is dedicated to strengthening the atmosphere of interethnic harmony and interreligious tolerance in society, and it sets out the following tasks:

- further improve the system of state support for national cultural centers.
- ensure the consistent implementation of the concept of state policy in the field of interethnic relations of the Republic of Uzbekistan.
- create additional favorable conditions for young people of different nationalities to understand their patriotism and civic duty, and to enhance the culture of interethnic relations based on tolerance,
- measures to provide additional support by the state to mass media operating in foreign languages and covering state policy in the field of interethnic relations to see xorijiy
- improving the activities of friendship societies in order to develop friendly relations with countries.
- The new Uzbekistan Development Strategy also pays special attention to the development of applied and fine arts and design, and to improving the artistic and aesthetic taste of the population, and the following tasks have been identified:
  - To widely disseminate the exemplary life and work of Uzbek people's artists and masters of applied arts in order to perpetuate the memory of them.
  - Popularization of Uzbek fine and applied arts worldwide.
  - Improvement of the system of training qualified personnel in fine and applied arts and design.
- In addition, the development strategy in our country will focus on the further development of the cultural and artistic sectors, improving the material and technical base of cultural institutions and facilities, and it is expected that the following reforms will be implemented;

The Development Strategy of New Uzbekistan, aimed at the consistent implementation of the noble goal of building a new Uzbekistan and creating the foundation of the Third Renaissance, is an activity program that identifies the needs and demands of the current era, the driving forces of our society, and the factors of development. This strategy is a clear expression of the creative spirit inherent in our people and the continuity of large-scale reforms in the coming years. The State Program for the Implementation of the Development Strategy of New Uzbekistan for 2022-2026 in the "Year of Humanistic and Quality Education" outlines measures aimed at implementing reforms in the spiritual and educational sphere: Firstly, to preserve the history, culture of Uzbekistan and the scientific and educational heritage of our great ancestors, to introduce them into scientific circulation, to promote them at the republican and international levels. further popularization on a large scale.[6]

Secondly, to realize the talents of our youth, to organize meaningful leisure time, to organize a 5-stage Five Initiative Olympiad on “A-Ti” in the field of library, culture, art, sports, intellectual games;

Secondly, to hold cultural and educational events in our country that promote interethnic harmony, religious tolerance, and friendship between peoples, including organizing and holding the “Friendship” festival on July 30 - the Day of Friendship of Peoples; holding the “Tolerance” week in all regions of the republic dedicated to November 16 - the International Day of Tolerance;

Thirdly, to support and encourage folklore ensembles operating under national cultural centers, implement the following measures:

1. Strengthen the material and technical base of 25 folklore ensembles under national cultural centers, provide them with stage costumes, musical instruments, modern sound and lighting equipment, and buses.

2. Create conditions for free use of cultural centers for folklore groups to hold rehearsals and concerts.

3. Organize, overhaul and modernize the “Friendship” concert hall on the basis of the large hall of the Committee for Interethnic Relations and Friendship with Foreign Countries;

Fourth, in order to hold international cultural events aimed at the wide dissemination of our national culture and art, the following tasks have been identified:

1. Organizing and holding the III International Bakhshi Art Festival in the city of Gulistan.

2. Organizing and holding the XIII International Music Festival “Oriental Songs”.

3. Organization and holding of the II International Maqom Art Conference in Bukhara.

4. Organization and holding of the “Bahor Nafasi” International Festival in Tashkent region.

5. Organization and holding of the “Dunyo Sadolari” International Festival in Andijan region.

6. Organization and holding of the International Chamber and Symphonic Music Festival in Tashkent;

As the head of our state emphasized in the book “Development Strategy of the New Uzbekistan”, “The creation of a new Uzbekistan is not just a wish, a subjective event, but rather a fundamental historical foundation, a demand of the current political, legal, socio-economic, spiritual and educational situation in our country, a necessity that corresponds to the centuries-old dreams and aspirations of our people, and fully meets their national interests.” “It is an objective necessity that gives.”[7]

In conclusion, today the reforms planned to be implemented in the direction of the development of spiritual and cultural spheres, which are determined by the future of our country, are recognized not only by our compatriots, but also by the international community. It is noteworthy that these spiritual and educational plans are being implemented with the consent of the people and the interests of the people in mind.

In other words, the plans and programs in this vision will help Uzbekistan enter a new stage in its development path. Today, under the slogan “From the Strategy of Actions - the Yellow of the Strategy of Development”, all the knowledge and abilities, strength and opportunities of the members of our society, which are the main driving force of renewal and reforms in our country, are being used, and this noble movement is gaining national significance.
